Therefore, the enclosed Apache Software License, Version 1.1, is a substantial part of this agreement. Further, the GNU Lesser General Public License, Version 2.1, is enclosed to this Software, because parts of the Software of the Free Software Foundation have been used.

For ninety (90) days from your date of purchase, Lotus warrants that (i) the Software will substantially conform to the applicable user documentation and (ii) that the magnetic media on which the Software is distributed and the user documentation (if any) are free from defects in materials and workmanship. Lotus will, at its option, refund the amount you paid for the Software or provide you with corrected items at no charge provided that the defective item(s) is returned to Lotus within ninety (90) days from the date of purchase. Any misuse or unauthorized modification of the Software will void this limited warranty.

Except as specifically provided herein, Lotus makes no warranty, representation, promise or guarantee, either express or implied, statutory or otherwise, with respect to the Software, user documentation or related technical support, including their quality, performance, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

The warranty and remedies set forth herein are exclusive and in lieu of all others, oral or written, express or implied. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction.

5. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Because software is inherently complex and may not be completely free of errors, it is your responsibility to verify your work and to make backup copies. In no event will Lotus or any of its licensors be liable for indirect, special, incidental, tort, economic, cover or consequential damages arising out of the use of or inability to use Lotus (or any of its licensors') products or services, including, without limitation, damages or costs relating to the loss of profits, business, goodwill, data or computer programs, even if advised of the possibility of such damages. In no case shall Lotus' or any its licensors' liability exceed the amount paid by you for the Software out of which such claim arose.

This limitation on monetary damages will not apply to claims relating to death or personal injury which arise out of products deemed to be consumer goods under applicable law. Some states, provinces and other jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of implied warranties or limitation of liability for incidental or consequential damages, so the above exclusion or limitation may not apply to you. However, in appropriate jurisdictions, Lotus limits its liability, according to the terms of this Agreement, to the extent permissible at law.

Additional terms applicable only in Australia. Nothing in this Agreement operates to exclude, restrict or modify the application of any of the provisions of the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) or any equivalent state or territory legislation, the exercise of a right conferred by such a provision, or any liability of Lotus for a breach of a condition or warranty (including but not limited to a condition or warranty in relation to goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption) implied by such a provision. To the extent that it is able to do so, Lotus expressly limits its liability for any breach of a condition or warranty under this Agreement or implied by virtue of any legislation to one of the following, the choice of which is to be at Lotus' sole discretion: (i) the replacement of the Software or the supply of equivalent software; or (ii) the payment of the cost of replacing the Software or of acquiring equivalent software.

6. U.S. GOVERNMENT RESTRICTED RIGHTS

The Software and/or user documentation are provided with RESTRICTED AND LIMITED RIGHTS. Use, duplication or disclosure by the Government is subject to restrictions as set forth in FAR 52.227-14 (June 1987) Alternate III(g)(3) (June 1987), FAR 52.227-19 (June 1987), or DFARS 52.227-7013 (c)(1)(ii) (June 1988), as applicable. Contractor/Manufacturer is Lotus Development Corporation, 55 Cambridge Pkwy., Cambridge, MA 02142. In the event the Government seeks to obtain the Software pursuant to standard commercial practice, this software agreement, instead of the noted regulatory clauses, shall control the terms of the Government's license.

7. GENERAL

No Lotus dealer, distributor, agent or employee is authorized to make any modification or addition to this Agreement. The Software contains cryptographic functions which are subject to special export licensing requirements by the U.S. Department of Commerce. It is your responsibility to comply with all such regulations. For use of the Software in North America and Latin America, this Agreement will be governed by
